Old-Fashioned German Christmas Sunday, December 4, 2005

Are you wondering if there really could be an old-fashioned Christmas anymore? Kevin Darr, reporter for the Monroe County Clarion, came down last year to find out. His answer...”I realized Christmas is a feeling, an atmosphere, not the commercial event it has become. These people wanted to be around the feeling of a traditional Christmas. They didn’t want the pomp and circumstance that comes with shopping the day after Thanksgiving. They came to Maeystown to find out what at old time Christmas is all about.

And that is exactly what they received.”

The historic German village of Maeystown, Illinois, founded in 1852, welcomes visitors to its seventeenth annual Old-Fashioned German Christmas on Sunday, December 4, 2005, between 11:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. in the village center. Folding your own German paper star, viewing a demonstration of the wrapping of a sassafras tree or corn dolling/wheat weaving, or riding a horse-drawn carriage will add to the “old-fashioned” flavor of the day.

Christmas music will be heard throughout the afternoon, beginning with a brass ensemble strolling the village from 11:00-1:00 p.m. Favorites Carl Seavers and Jim Abbott on hammered dulcimers will be heard at the rock mill from 1:00-5:00 p.m. The Valmeyer High School ensembles perform at the Corner George Inn beginning at 12:30 p.m., followed by a German Christmas carol sing at 3:00 p.m. The lighting of the village Weihnachtsbaum and carol sing will commence at 4:45 p.m.

The Women’s Club “Taste of Christmas” (dessert samplings) can be enjoyed throughout the afternoon from 11:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m. at the Mill. A wide selection of food will be offered throughout the village including: chicken and dumplings, roast pork and dressing, weihnacht stew, bratwurst, fresh baked goods (including German Christmas cookies), wassail and roasted almonds.

Hope to see you there.
